

Expression of Interest (EOI) – Container Refund Point Mackay

Container Exchange (COEX) are seeking Expressions of Interest (EOI) from parties wishing to operate a Container Refund Point (CRP) in Mackay.

COEX is responsible for managing Queensland's Container Refund Scheme, Containers for Change, which aims to reduce litter and increase recycling by providing a 10-cent refund for each eligible beverage container returned to a CRP.

The successful CRP will be based at one of the following areas:

- Andergrove
- Beaconsfield
- Blacks Beach
- Bucasia
- Cremorne
- Dolphin Heads
- Eimeo
- Glenella
- Mount Pleasant
- Nindaroo
- North Mackay
- Richmond
- Rural View
- Shoal Point
- Slade Point.

The suburbs have a combined population of more than 51,000 residents within an eight kilometre radius. COEX encourages interested parties to put forward innovative operational, community and social solutions to service this catchment.

If you're interested in making a difference by facilitating recycling and fundraising opportunities in the local community, please submit an EOI which includes:

- preferred CRP location
- CRP operating model (e.g. bag drop, depot, mobile)
- relevant experience providing exceptional customer service.

Please submit your completed EOI to tenders@containerexchange.com.au by 3 pm, Friday 13 March 2020.
